  - $3,000,000 products and complete operations aggregate limit
  - $1,000,000 each occurrence limit
  - $1,000,000 personal and advertising injury limit
  - $2,000,000 umbrella each occurrence limit
- $250 deductible for property damage
- Policy term: January 1, 2022 to December 31, 2022
- Group Policy
- Excess Policy

Additional Policies Available

Complex markets; and vendors who sell cottage foods at both a market and from their home; will not qualify under this program. However, Advantage 1 can offer other insurance policies to cover both. Contact MFMA's Jesse Davis if you need information about these policies: (218) 259-9675 or jdavis@mfma.org.

Coverage Guidelines and Eligibility

To be an insured on the MFMA group policy, the following guidelines apply. This is a summary of insurance and the actual policy language holds true above all summarized language.

Insurance for Vendors

- a. A vendor must be a MFMA member to be eligible for this member benefit.
- b. Premiums will be charged as a flat amount for the policy period.
- c. No refunds for cancellations.
- d. No reduced premiums for late entry into the policy period.
- e. Premiums noted include all processing fees and state taxes.
- f. The above coverages are the only coverages offered. Any coverage requested in the application that differs from the above is not included.
- g. Vendors will have coverage at any established* farmers' market or established* farmers' market-type event in the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin.
- h. Only small, one-of-a-kind, non-mass-produced crafts will be permitted to be sold.
- i. Only locally grown/raised products are eligible for sale.
- j. No resale of wholesale purchased items.

- k. No concessionaires are eligible. For example, vendors who sell pizza, hamburgers, or beverages like coffee or lemonade meant to be consumed onsite while at the market are ineligible for this program. 📣
- l. No coverage for cosmetics or body care products (soap, lotion, etc.). 📣
- m. Coverage is not valid for sales from your home or farm, for commercial kitchens, or for crops; coverage is only valid at established* farmers' markets or established* farmers' market-type events. 📣
- n. This is not for vendors who have a store front, as the market is just another selling location. These vendors must obtain coverage through their business insurance. 📣
- o. Insurance is only valid in the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin (although a vendor may live in adjacent states).
- p. Vendors must comply with applicable Minnesota/Wisconsin Department of Agriculture and Minnesota/Wisconsin Department of Health rules and regulations.
- q. A certificate of insurance will be emailed or mailed to you as your proof of insurance.

Glossary of Terms

1. Liability insurance: Insurance that pays on behalf of an insured for loss due to negligence that is deemed the responsibility of the insured. It extends coverage to a person, business, or other entity to cover bodily injury or property damage. Liability insurance covers the cost of investigating claims that may turn into a lawsuit and the attorney fees associated with protecting the person, business, or entity being sued.
  - i. Bodily injury includes the cost of care following an accident, the loss of service one might endure as a result of that accident, and the cost of restitution should the accident take a life or permanently injure another.
  - ii. Property damage includes the loss of property and the loss of property use.
2. Additional Insured: An individual or entity that is not automatically included as insured under another's policy, but may be named providing that entity a certain degree of protection.
3. Certificate of Insurance: A document that indicates your coverage amounts, carriers, and policy effective dates.
4. Excess policy: MFMA is an excess policy over other collectable limits. In case of a claim, all other liability insurance policies the insured has will be accessed first, before coming to this excess policy.
5. Group policy: everyone insured through the group policy shares in the occurrence and aggregate limits of liability.
6. Insured: The party to whom the insurance company agrees to cover losses, provides benefits, or renders services.
7. Market Insurance: this policy covers the market premises, market organization, and its employees. Such a policy offers basic "slip and fall" coverage as well as product liability. Coverage extends to multiple locations under one market umbrella, but each location shares the limits of coverage.
8. Negligence: Failure to use that degree of care that an ordinary person of reasonable prudence would exercise in like circumstances.
9. Umbrella Liability Policy: A liability policy designed to provide liability protection above and beyond that provided by standard liability contracts.
10. Vendor Insurance: Provide general liability or "slip and fall" coverage to the individual vendor within the market. Coverage also includes product liability insurance. Policy coverage is extended to all named markets the vendor participates in.
